This event is fundraiser for the organization. The monies derived from it funds the organization’s scholarship program, outreach program and operating expenses. Your participation and support will also contribute to the success of the event.

SCTPN expresses its appreciation to medical professionals who are dedicated and committed to treating Sickle Cell Disease and Thalassemia; corporations who contribute to the cause, the healthcare, education, and public service communities and private citizens who give time and resources because they recognize the overall impact of these debilitating conditions. The organization also acknowledges, the collaborative efforts of other community-based non-for-profit and civic organizations that have made a commitment to assist the affected community.

We look forward to seeing you on Saturday, April 1, 2017 as we pay tribute to this year’s honorees.

Thank you for your consideration and continued support.

Very truly yours,

Esme Hilman,
